Processing Note

Re: Telephone Conversations between the President and others from 4:30 p.m. to 7:40 or 8:10 p.m., 11/23/93

When processing the transcripts, the archives staff arranged and numbered the conversations in the following order:

Transcript 22 [Governor John Reynolds] [time not shown] Although this is identified in the corner by a handwritten notation, "Governor John Reynolds, Gov.
Romney," most of the remarks appear to be taken from a conversation with Carl Robard later in the day. See transcript 27.

Transcript 23 Gov. John Reynolds, 4:30 p.m.

Transcript 24 McGeorge Bundy, 5:52 p.m.

Transcript 25 David Dubinsky, 7:32 p.m.

Transcript 26 Senator Ted Kennedy, 7:40
Although the information filed with the dictabelt indicated that the conversation was at 7:40 p.m., the Diary indicates the conversation took place at 8:10 p.m., and the White House Telephone Operators' Logs indicate that the conversation took place at 8:05 p.m.

Transcript 27 Carl Robard [time not shown]

Transcript 28 Patrick Lucey [time not shown]

All of the conversations were recorded on one IBM dictabelt, and when the archives staff played it, they found that the conversations took place in the following order:

Governor John Reynolds, 4:30 p.m.
Patrick Lucey/Carl Robard [same call], [time not shown]
McGeorge Bundy, 5:52 p.m.
David Dubinsky, 7:32 p.m.
Senator Ted Kennedy, 7:40 [time shown on transcript]

TELEPHONE CALL
SENATOR TED KENNEDY TO THE PRESIDENT

TK: Mr. President, I tried to reach you before now but I thought I'd wait until today...

LBJ: Well, you shouldn't be taking your time now...but I did want you to know that you're in my prayers and I am so proud of the fact that I know you and I've been a part of this memory.

TK: Well, I just wanted you to know how much I appreciate... well, my mother and family... well, I...

LBJ: Well, you give her a hug for me and you and Joan keep one for yourself and know that God Almighty and his wisdom work in mysterious ways ..and we'll unite together.

TK: Well, thank you, anyway.

LBJ: Thank you, Ted.
